Three Graduates From Parochial Schools This Year

Commencement Exercises Will Be Held in the Open in the School Yard.

THE PROGRAM IS INTERESTING.

Commencement exercises of St. Mary's academy will be held Wednesday at 4 o'clock on the campus. A large stage has been erected and seats for a large audience arranged. The fact of it being held in the open will serve to augment the audience, for in former years the crowded auditorium has been a disadvantage. The program offered this year is excellent and does not show any decline. From the rehearsals the exercises are expected to be better than ever before. All the pupils of the academy will take part including the three graduates: Misses Olive Clark, Nellie Yopp, and Eudora Farley.

OPERATORS QUIT ON C. & A. LINES

FEES OF LAWYERS IN REHKOPF CASE

Five thousand dollars is the fee asked by Attorneys Bradshaw & Bradshaw, J. Campbell Plourney and W. D. Greer for representing petitioning creditors in the E. Rehkopf bankruptcy case. A petition was filed today with Referee in Bankruptcy E. W. Bagby by the attorneys, asking this amount, and a hearing of the petition is set for June 29.

WEATHER FORECAST.

FAIR.

Fair tonight and Tuesday. Not much change in temperature. Highest temperature yesterday, 92; lowest today, 65.

NO CREDENCE.

Washington, June 17.—Not much credence was placed in official circles upon the published report of Viscount Aoki, Japanese ambassador, is about to be succeeded by Baron Kaneko, former minister of justice. In fact, it is rather discredited.

HAYWOOD TRIAL.

Boise, June 17.—Harry Orchard, star witness in the Haywood trial, was taken to Caldwell today on the early train and arraigned before Judge Wood, charged with the murder of former Governor Steunenberg. He was closely guarded by penitentiary guards and Pinkerton detectives on the trip. No session of the Haywood trial was held today. When court convenes Tuesday Steve Adams will be called as a witness for the state.

FRENCH TRIAL.

Beattyville, Ky., June 17.—Special Judge Dorsey, of Henderson, will arrive today to convene a special term of court to try B. F. French, charged with complicity in the murder of James B. Marcum, at Jackson. Neither side is prepared for trial and it is thought the case will be continued by agreement.

RUSSIAN TROUBLE.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—This day proclamations are made by Liberal and anti-government parties, following the dissolution of the duma, and tomorrow, Wednesday, when these proclamations and circulars have been widely distributed and read by the people, a reaction against the government is expected, strikes, the old weapon of the overthrown, probably will be the first evidence of dissatisfaction with the government.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.

Sevastopol, Russia, June 17.—What is regarded as a direct attempt to assassinate Admiral Wiren, commander of the Russian squadron, at Sevastopol, took place today. While cruising about the harbor in a launch a blank torpedo was discharged directly at the launch. It cut clear through the vessel but the commander succeeded in beaching the sinking craft. All officers of the torpedo boat were arrested. Col. Guezesosky, commander of the harbor, was assassinated yesterday.

TARIFF REVISION.

St. Paul, June 17.—Revision of the tariff ought to be made an issue in the next campaign, says Governor Johnson, of Minnesota. He is mentioned as a presidential candidate by eastern Democrats. Johnson says everybody in the northwest favors tariff revision.

RECORD BREAKER SUNDAY'S CROWD

Thirty-three Cars Were on Broadway Line

Chautauqua Is Becoming More Popular Each Day, and Entertainment Pleasing.

FOR THE MERCHANTS TONIGHT

Unknown and untold, the crowds attended the Chautauqua last year because many had bought season tickets and they wanted to use them, but this year they are attending because they know what they are expecting and "Blue Monday," the slow day everywhere, was lively beyond expectations at the Chautauqua grounds today, Saturday, too, usually a poor day, was a record breaker, while Sunday, it is estimated that the largest crowds ever in the park, was in attendance and a liberal portion visited the Chautauqua auditorium. Thirty-three cars were run on the Broadway line yesterday, and 4,000 persons were handled.

Starting from an unknown source, a rumor circulated freely over the park grounds Sunday and in the city, that Dr. Krebs' lecture at night on "Three Gods of One," would be agnostic in its tone. It is known that a hundred or more persons were kept away from the lecture on this rumor, which could not have been farther from the truth. Any one who has heard any of Dr. Krebs' lectures knows that he is orthodox in his views and that he never allows science to assume more than its right value.

More children attended the Boys' and Girls' club this morning when an admission charge was made, than attended last year when the admission was free. Miss Hemenway put the children through exercises and games that left a glow in their cheeks and enthusiasm for the work. At 10:30 o'clock, Mr. James Speed took charge of the class and talked on nature study. He easily made friends with the children and this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, instead of at 1:30 o'clock, he will take the children out for a walk in the woods. Here he will show them things which untrained eyes cannot see and turn them into nature-loving children.

Rev. H. S. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, is addressing the audience on "The Power of An Idea," this afternoon. He takes the great ideas that have met with violent opposition in their infancy, but which finally triumphed and made the world better.

The first concert of the Chautauqua will be given this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Misses Hemenway, Metzger and Carroll on the program, and at 8 o'clock at night, Mr. Gibeon Carl, a characterist and not a caricaturist, will open the program. Mr. Carl will impersonate a special dressing room, having been arranged on the stage.

"The Psychology of Salesmanship and Business," will be Dr. Krebs' subject tonight at 9 o'clock. The four divisions of the subject, which was put on particularly for the stores and business men, but which is as liberally interspersed with Dr. Krebs' humor as any of his subjects, will be, "The Salesman," second, "The Customer," third, "The Goods," fourth, "The Sale." The lecture cannot be dry for anybody in Dr. Krebs' hands.

Western Kentucky Certain To Nominate Candidates

Capt. Ed Farley and Judge James Breathitt, of Hopkinsville, will go in to the Republican state convention with the solid vote of western Kentucky behind them. Between them, it is believed, the First and Second congressional districts will give their 314 votes to Farley for treasurer and Breathitt for attorney general. In all probability, too, the Fourth district, with 197 votes, will go for them and the Fifth district, comprising Jefferson county, with its 217 votes, are counted in their columns, because in the face of active opposition, A. E. Willson has been endorsed by nearly every county in this section. With a solid vote, western Kentucky will obtain some recognition, and with these two districts united for something, the Gibraltar of Kentucky will return about half its ordinary majority. Outside the districts counted for them, Captain Farley and Judge Breathitt will receive hearty support from counties in all the other districts, and probably will be nominated on the first ballot.

County Chairman Dr. Frank Boyd today announced delegates to the Republican state convention at Louisville, Wednesday, June 19, in accordance with the instructions of the convention as follows: Ed Farley, J. E. Williamson, Earl Palmer, J. P. Wurth, F. M. Fisher, E. E. Bell, Dr. H. P. Sights, George O. McBroom, W. T. Miller, J. H. Ashcraft, George Andrecht, J. P. McQueen, George Lehnard, E. Neal, J. P. Reid, G. H. Banks, D. A. Meacham, C. F. Merriweather, W. L. Bauer, Elder Hawkins, E. J. Paxton, Frank Boyd, Riley Culp.

BUNKER HILL DAY IN BOSTON TOWN

THE SECRETARY IN HIS NEW ROLE.

"WE CAN MANAGE OUR OWN AFFAIRS"

Says Prof. George O. McBroom Republican Candidate For Member of Legislature from This County

WILL NOT MAKE ANY PLEDGES.

"I am for local self-government, in the first place," declared Prof. George O. McBroom, Republican candidate for the legislature from McCracken county, when asked about his platform. "On enforcement of the laws and morality everybody knows my record. I have made no promises to get the nomination. I shall make none to be elected. I go to the legislature, which I verily believe I shall, I shall go without a single obligation binding me, that could hamper in the least my freedom to take a stand on every question in the interest of McCracken county." Prof. McBroom was for ten years identified with the public schools as superintendent and was president of the board of the general council. His nomination came unsolicited, as an honor conferred on the one most suitable to the situation.

Conductor Has Close Call When Engine Turns Over

Blinded by steam and unable to jump because he did not know where he was jumping, Conductor A. J. Perkins, this city, was thrown off the tank of engine, No. 849, as she turned over at Gravel Switch, a few miles north of Princeton on the Louisville division of the Illinois Central this morning between 2 and 3 o'clock. He was sorely bruised, but not seriously injured. By jumping, the engineer and fireman saved themselves from injury. Engine, No. 849, was sent to Gravel Switch to take out the gravel run. It was in charge of Engineer G. L. Brown and Conductor A. J. Perkins, both of Paducah. Perkins stood on the tank trying to get the fireman's eye, when the big engine ran off a "set-off." She wobbled a time or two, and before she could be brought to a stop turned. Escaping steam blinded the conductor, and he remained on the tank until thrown off by the sudden turning of the engine. He alighted on his chest and was badly bruised in the chest and left knee, but no bones were broken. Engineer Brown with his fireman jumped, when it was seen the engine was turning. The Paducah wrecker was sent out and is today replacing the engine on the track. She is but slightly damaged.

SEES SUN SPOTS OF GREAT SIZE

Ira L. Hicks Predicts Disasters to Earth by Reason of Fearful Storm Whirling Across Planet

WILL BE GONE IN SHORT TIME.

St. Louis, June 17.—An enormous sun spot, announced to be the largest discovered in years, has been found on the east line of old Sol by Rev. I. R. Hicks, the famous astronomer of this city, who predicted the Galveston tidal wave, St. Louis cyclone and the recent tornadoes and hail storms. The spot was first discovered last Saturday morning by Mr. Hicks, who makes it his daily custom to search the heavens for phenomena, and was then at a distance from the east line, which he calculates caused its first appearance on Friday morning of last week. On that day the clouds hid the sun, and when discovered the following day old Sol appeared to be in a state of terrific eruption, the lines showing an area which seemed to be under a tornado-like whirl. The spot is easily discerned by the naked eye through a piece of colored glass. At first the glare blinds one momentarily, but by looking steadily for a few moments the spot becomes visible, gradually growing larger until it appears to be about one-eighth of the size of the entire sun. The big spot is dangerous, too, according to Dr. Hicks, who says that throughout the storm area of the United States the public may look for terrific electric storms accompanied by high winds. This will reach the country between Wednesday and Friday, just at the time the spot crosses the meridian of the sun. The object will be discernable to people in this country until next Saturday, when after passing to the west line of the sun, will disappear over the edge. If it is strong enough to brave the rotation of the sun, it will again appear in either a much larger or smaller state about twelve days from next Saturday, and is expected to again "kick up a row" in the United States.

HEAT OVERCOMES MANY IN CITIES

Beat Little Dog To Death. When the cry of "mad dog" echoed through the streets at Sixteenth and Tennessee streets last evening at 6 o'clock there was a mad rush of pedestrians, principally women to the yards and into houses. Men secured sticks and when the little snapping cur was cornered near that corner, and fully 20 men beat it to death. No one was bitten.

CITY HOSPITAL ON PAYING BASIS

How Finances Stand With Riverside at Present

Physicians Have Worked to Give Institution Fine Reputation in Section.

COSTS LESS THAN OLD ONE.

Operated on a policy which, if pursued, will put it on a self-sustaining basis within the next six months or a year, the Riverside hospital leaves the hands of the old board of directors and comes under the management of the new board, elected by the general council last week. A statement of the finances of the hospital for the first five months of 1907 in comparison with the preceding six months and with other periods, bears out that assertion.

Graduate nurses in the hospital were paid from January 1 of this year, to June 1, $429. In that period they earned and turned into the city treasury $498, showing that this feature of the hospital already is on more than a self-sustaining basis. Ten undergraduate nurses are in training at the hospital and they have proven a valuable addition as a source of revenue to the hospital from being employed out in the city by private families. This feature is new and will grow as the citizens become familiar with the high standard of the hospital.

It has been one of the strong features of the hospital service, that as the standard of medical attention increases for the pay patients, the same attention is given to the city patients, no discrimination in nursing, medicine or other hospital facilities being made whatever.

The Finances.
The expense for the hospital from July 1, 1906, until January 1, 1907, were $4,307.75. The income in that period from pay patients was $3,521.59, making the net cost to the city to operate the hospital, $786.16, or, $131.01 a month.

For the first five months of 1907 ending June 1, the expenses of the hospital were $3,579.63. The revenue in that period was $3,154, or, a net cost to the city of $425.63, or a monthly cost of $85.11. From a comparison of the last six months of 1906 and the first five months of 1907, it is apparent that the income of the hospital is rapidly overtaking the expenses and will pass them in the next six months or a year, if the standard of the hospital is maintained.

The idea of the old management has been to keep the hospital at a standard that would attract private patients not only from the city but from all west Kentucky and southern Illinois. If this standard is maintained, the hospital will soon be self-supporting and the service to the poor patients gets better as the service to the pay patients improves. In the year 1903-04 the old city hospital cost the city $2,000 to operate. There was no revenue from pay patients and the service to the poor patients was indifferent. In the short time intervening, the new hospital has taken rank with the best hospitals in the country.

If its stride upward has been rapid any deterioration in the standard of the hospital would send it down with far greater celerity, and once down, it would be a matter of years before it could be raised in the estimation of the public. It is this thought that is giving birth to a desire in the minds of the doctors in the city to see the institution kept free from politics.

HEAT OVERCOMES MANY IN CITIES

Miss Alice Wood, was overcome with heat at Fifth street and Broadway this afternoon, and was taken into the Illinois Central railroad ticket office, where medical attention revived her. She was taken to her home in a cab. She will recover. The temperature is 88.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 17.

With a temperature of 88 degrees today, the coroner reported 20 deaths more or less due to the sudden change in temperature.

JUMPS

COLORED WOMAN FRIGHTENED BY DISPLAY OF WEAPONS.

Turns Numerous Somersaults but Is Not Seriously Injured in Alighting on Street.

Frightened at a lightning like display of cutlery and pocket artillery, Curtis Webb, a colored woman 25 years old, jumped from a Rowlandtown street car at 12:40 o'clock Sunday morning at Fifth and Harrison streets, and after turning several "flips" alighted in the street. As soon as the car stopped the woman was picked up and Dr. Frank Boyd, residing half a square away, was awakened and attended her. Manager John S. Blecker, residing next door to Dr. Boyd, was also handy, and took the woman's statement.

John Davis and Buck Robinson, colored, had taken too much foolish water at a dance at Rowlandtown and got into an argument on the car. Davis is alleged to have pulled out a knife. Robinson as quickly pulled out a large pistol and they started for each other. There was a mad rush to both ends of the car and the Webb woman got to the rear first. She wasted no time but jumped blindly from the steps. By force other passengers were held on the car and a stop made.

K. OF C. IN CHARGE OF CITY SUNDAY

Over Hundred Attend Initiation and Banquet

Many Brought Their Wives and They Were Entertained by Paducah Women.

BANQUET WAS GRAND AFFAIR.

Fully 200 visitors were in Paducah yesterday to participate in the initiation of a class of 45 into the Knights of Columbus order, and the program was carried through without a hitch. The weather was ideal, and many women who accompanied their husbands here, walked and rode over the city. They were also entertained with an impromptu reception and musicale at the Palmer House in the afternoon, which proved an attractive and enjoyable feature of the day.

At 9 o'clock a special train from Cairo bearing about 100 Cairo knights and about 20 from St. Louis, arrived. About 50 came from Morganfield on the boat, and Memphis was represented by 10, and Jackson by 20.

The knights met at Red Men's hall on North Fourth street, and marched in a body to St. Francis de Sales church, where high mass was observed. After the church service they dispersed for dinner. At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon the initiation began at Red Men's hall and continued until 7:30 o'clock. The first degree was exemplified by the Cairo council, the second by the Morganfield council and third by the St. Louis council, with State Deputy J. S. Leahy in charge.

At 9 o'clock an elaborate banquet was spread at the Palmer House, and both knights and ladies attended. Features of the banquet were speaking, all impromptu. Mr. John T. Donovan was toastmaster and speeches were made by many, those from Mr. Leahy and W. T. Drury, the latter of Morganfield, being special features. The singing of Mr. James Rohan, a tenor of remarkable skill and tone of voice was about the best ever heard in Paducah. Mr. Rohan is considered the best tenor singer in St. Louis. He sang from the balcony during the banquet. This morning the Morganfield delegation returned on the boat. The Cairo council returned last night on a special train and other visitors returned on regular trains.

In the afternoon the visiting ladies gave an informal musical on the ladies' promenade at the Palmer House. They later made a raid on all the stores selling souvenir postal cards and Paducah will be well advertised by the hundreds of postals sent out by her visitors yesterday.

The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists 50c.

Idleness at the ways this morning until 8 o'clock suggested numerous reasons for the shut-down, but asked if there was a strike, the answer was in the negative. There was plenty of work for the United States engineers' boat was there with the hull half torn away. "The men will only work eight hours today and they will get full pay" was the statement made in the office. Uncle Sam is responsible for the decrease in working hours. Whenever a government boat is being repaired, the government workday is in force and the government navy yards only work eight hours.

The Bettie Owen will be laid up getting repairs to the cylinder timbers for this week and perhaps longer. The timbers being cut out have been in the boat for 17 years and were cut from the Owen farms across the river.

Emerson's showboat will be here next Friday. Price's showboat will come next week. Ghent's showboat will get away this week.

The Fannie Wallace was lifted on the dry docks for repairs this morning. It will require two or three days for the work.

Missing the Clarksville trip, the Dunbar will not arrive from Nashville until Thursday and will then return to Nashville. The Buttorff will be several weeks longer getting repairs at Clarksville, and if the river gets low, the Dunbar probably will remain in this trade.

A large shipment of cots was made to Cairo on the Dick Fowler this morning. The hotels and rooming houses are making preparations for the big crowds that will attend the Egyptian Hustlers' convention next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Dick Fowler will have special rates and schedules for those days. Paducahans who attend will work with Metropolis to get the next convention for that town, as a large benefit would result to Paducah if Metropolis should get it.

The Joe Wheeler arrived Saturday night from Chattanooga and is unloading at Brookport and Joppa today. Wednesday the Joe Wheeler will go to Chattanooga.

The City of Savannah will leave St. Louis this evening for the Tennessee river passing here Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

The City of Saltillo will arrive from the Tennessee river Tuesday afternoon bound for St. Louis.

The gauge showed a rise of 0.7 in the last 48 hours on the river here. This morning the stage was at 28.7. On June 17 last year the stage was 9.1.

The Reaper will arrive from Cairo today going to the Caseyville mines of the West Kentucky Coal company to get a tow of coal and will go back down the river.

The Joe Fowler left on time this morning for Evansville, having arrived Sunday from that city.

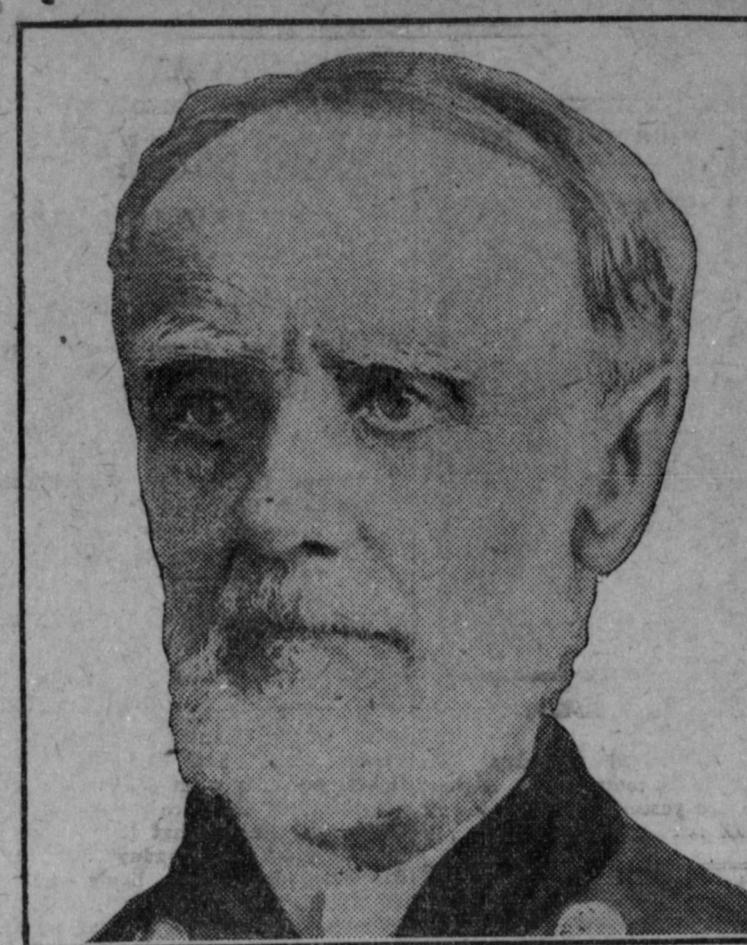

The Clyde will arrive tonight from the Tennessee river.

The Russell Lord brought a tow of ties out of the Tennessee river Sunday for the Ayer-Lord Tie company and left this morning for St. Louis to unload.

"Great Christian Work"

GENERAL HAMILTON.

Says Gen. Alexander Hamilton, namesake and descendant of the great American patriot and signer of the Declaration of Independence, who was cured of Chronic Catarrh and serious complications from wounds received in the Civil War by taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and says that giving suffering humanity such a wonderful medicine is a great Christian work.

"For many years I suffered from Chronic Catarrh and serious complications as a result of wounds received in the Civil War. After trying almost every remedy without results, I began four years ago to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I am in my ninety-second year, feel strong and vigorous, possess all my faculties and my catarrh has entirely disappeared. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the greatest cure in the world for a broken down system.

"It has revived many of my friends who were seriously ill. I have induced many neighbors and parties throughout the country, even to the West Indian Islands, to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and all join in singing the praise of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for the benefit they have derived from it.

One leading mechanic in plumbing and tin work told me about one year ago he would have to give up business, I urged him to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and he now tells me he is as vigorous as ever from using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and full of business.

You are doing a great Christian work by giving such a wonderful medicine to suffering humanity. I use two bottles a month and would not be without it at any cost."—Alexander Hamilton, Tarrytown, N. Y., March 28th, '07.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been made public and this private process insures quality and flavor. Its age, softness, palatability and freedom from those injurious substances found in other whiskies make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic. It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs, creates new nerve tissues, tones and strengthens the heart, gives power to the brain and elasticity to the muscles, enriches the blood and soothes and heals the mucous membranes. It brings into action all the vital forces. It makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a form of food already digested, and is recognized as a medicine everywhere.

Caution—Sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers or direct, in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1. Insist on the genuine and see that the "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label and that the seal over the cork is unbroken. Beware of refilled bottles and spurious malt whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unreliable dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

LOST ROLL

A. S. HOWLE SLEPT IN ROOM WITH A STRANGER.

He Awoke To Find Roommate Gone, and All His Money Missing—Fellow Escaped.

While sleeping this morning A. S. Howle, of Slater, a brother of Murray (Bud) Howle, turnkey at the county jail, lost $19 this morning, and although a thorough search was made by the south yards and that neighborhood, the suspect eluded Patrolmen Orr and Sanders and Special Policemen Patillo Kirk, of the Illinois Central forces. Howle secured a bed at the Theobald Peters lodging house at Eleventh street and Broadway last night, retiring at 10:30 o'clock. There was another bed in the room and when a stranger applied for lodgings, was assigned to it. Howle was slumbering when the stranger went in, and his money, consisting of a $10 bill, $5 bill and four dollars, was tucked under his pillow. When he awoke this morning the money was gone, also the stranger. A person answering the description of the suspect was seen at the Illinois Central station before day-break.

THE PROGRAMS BY CHILDREN

Many parents and friends of the children attended Children's day exercises yesterday morning at the Trimble Street Methodist church and at the First Presbyterian church last night.

The church was beautifully decorated in flowers and potted plants, green predominating.

The Sunday school choir led the singing.

Trimble Street Church.

Beautiful decorations of flowers and plants helped make children's day at the Trimble Street church attractive. The program was carried out as follows:

Recitations were made by Ruby Darnell and Geneva Clayton, Vivian Reeves, Thelred Packett, Lucy Newhouse, Mary Bolton, Annie Bethel, Genela Barlowe, Mahala King, Lela Newhouse.

Songs were sung by Edythe Morrison, Clara Rhodes and Clara Scott. Dr. Washburn, C. W. Morrison opened the service with prayer, Miss S. L. Jackson led the Bible reading.

Our offering, a speech, was delivered by Charlie Lee. Miss Genela Barlowe rendered the pantomime, "Nearer My God To Thee."

Guthrie Avenue.

Interest has not declined in the protracted meeting being conducted at the Guthrie Avenue Methodist church for the past two weeks and the intention was to bring it to a close yesterday, but the prospects are that the meeting will be continued this week. The Rev. Mr. Wise, of Madisonville, has lead the meetings and many new members have been added to the church membership. Yesterday three converts were baptized in Guthrie's pit. At the service last night three converts were secured.

Church Notes.

Delegates to the state general association of Baptists to be held in Mayfield June 24, will be selected to represent the First Baptist church in this city, next Wednesday night, when an important congregational meeting will be held. Twelve delegates are to be selected.

Anti-Saloon League.

Members of all the anti-saloon leagues in the city will meet in the lecture room of the First Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will not be an open meeting and business of an important character will be discussed.

The rededication of the Second church will take place Friday night.

He Fired the Stick.

"I have fired the walking-stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett, of North Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, etc., by all druggists, 25c.

W. T. MILLER CALLED TO RUN FOR MAYOR.

We, the voters of the I. C. shops, in common with others, wish to express our preference for a candidate for mayor in advance of the convention, and ask W. T. Miller to become a candidate and if nominated we will do the rest. He has been our choice from the start and now that Mr. Smith has withdrawn we consider him the logical candidate and will give him our hearty support. His official conduct while alderman gave general satisfaction and proved him a capable man with no hobbies or eccentricities.

Daily Thought.

"Cheerfulness is not a little thing when it shows men the joy of the Lord."

THE SITUATION.

All McCreackin county's favorites had a walkaway in the Republican county conventions Saturday and the indorsement of Capt. Ed Farley for state treasurer, shows how he stands in western Kentucky, in particular, and in all Kentucky generally. The names of Captain Farley and Judge James Breathitt on the ticket will be worth hundreds of votes in this section, and every vote is going to count next fall. Judge Breathitt is at the head of the bar in western Kentucky, a man of probity and worth, and an orator that an opponent may well fear to meet on the hustings.

The indorsement of Willson, in accordance with the suggestion of The Sun, proves to be the proper course.
He was the only announced candidate for the office and his nomination was practically assured. The almost unanimous stand in his favor taken by the counties eliminates any prolonged contest before the convention and makes it a love feast. There really were no contests in any of the western Kentucky counties for other instructions. The issue was whether to instruct or send an uninstructed delegation, and on this issue local leaders struggled for control of county delegations, while all the while both sides were for Willson. All but two counties in the First congressional district were for Willson and all but four instructed for him.

Hon. Augustus E. Willson is a fighter and a speaker. He has been heard on the hustings in this section.
All his speeches and letters, both before and since his entrance into the race for nomination, have breathed the loftiest ideals of patriotism and devotion to duty. He has openly avowed his aspirations, as becomes a free born American citizen, and yet his avowal came after it was made clear that his candidacy would pave the way for party unity. A record of corruption in cities, state Gerrymanders, earning a rebuke from the highest court, practical sympathy with the assassins of Breathitt county, and supine acquiescence in the lawlessness of western Kentucky, coupled with relentless political extermination practiced by the Democratic hierarchy, have furnished the Republicans of Kentucky with all the issues they need next fall.

It is gratifying to Paducahans that the first year the women of the city are represented at the state federation of Women's clubs they win a state office and the next meeting of the federation at Paducah will impress the fact that these women are engaged in enterprises of civic thrift and advancement. We must be able to show them a city abreast of the times morally and in the outward aspects of streets and public and private property. Visiting men can be entertained by various make-shift devices, but when the representative, progressive women of Kentucky come, we must be able to show them something really worth the while. Let us heartily encourage the Charly club in its systematic effort to abate distress and poverty; support the Humane society, which will free our streets from the spectacle of inhuman drivers and abused beasts; improve our property and the streets; clean out the alleys, and put our school system on a sound basis.

We entertain a "hunch" that sweeping the dust under the rug and locking the back door will not save any bad municipal housekeeping from scrutiny when these women come.
Paducah is the best town in the commonwealth of Kentucky; but it is up to us to make her look like it.

It was disastrous when the steamer Reaper stubbed her tow against the Cairo bridge.

Allan Updegraff, Yale graduate, retired janitor of Upton Sinclair's Heliopolis hall, an ex-poet, is going to the Fiji Islands in search of a workless paradise. Were Mr. Updegraff not a poet we would classify him as downright lazy.

WATTERSON ON THE RACE
QUESTION.

It was in one of his well balanced moods that Henry Watterson delivered his address before the graduates of the Eckstein-Norton (colored) institute. His declaration recognizes the advancement of the colored man in America, as compared with his brother of Africa and the West Indies; acknowledges his position in the industrial economy of the south, and on every point announces the attitude of every true man in the south on the race question.

Coming, as it does, from one who is a southern of southrons, at a time when Vardaman is enunciating his creed of bitter hate, and sensational and ignorant wriflers are stirring up a devil's broth of distrust throughout this section, Colonel Wat-tersson's words should be taken to heart by both the white man and the colored man.

Witness that he begins with the declaration that the white man and black man must dwell together in the south; that neither can get away from the other.

He says in part:
"We may not escape our manifest destiny. Neither of us can get rid of the other. Schemes to that end, however ingenious, are wholly vicious. Since this is so, let us take account of what has been done these fourty years of freedom.
"I stand here tonight to declare that the world has never witnessed any such progress from darkness to light as that which we see in those districts of the south where the negro has had a decent opportunity for self-development. Look at Jamaica-—nearly a century of emancipation, the negro at a standstill—look at South Africa, riches piled on riches, the negro still a savage and less considered than the animals—yet it is England that plagues herself on what she has done for freedom and the black man.

"Turn southward; plenty both of work and wages for all who bring tranquil minds and willing hands.
Bad people, slothful people, get on nowhere; but nowhere on the habitable globe has the liberated slave fared so well, nowhere has he so fair an outlook, as in the southern states of North America.

"Why? Because we know one another and because, no matter what anybody says to the contrary, there is a common bond of association between us. Never can the white man of the south forget what the black man did during a war waged for his freedom; and what he might have done. Never should the black man of the south forget that he is the weaker in the race toward perfection and for a long time must look to the white man for help of many kinds.
It is through these reciprocal obligations and interests that the two races will reach an institutional system of living and doing entirely satisfactory to both.

"Nothing is to be expected from the rushing hot-house process, or from any artificial arrangement; everything is to be hoped from nature left to herself—unvexed by misdirected political considerations, uninfluenced by outsiders teaching false philosophies—simple justice and kindness presiding over the ordinary laws of common honesty, and common sense.

"The negro in Africa has scarcely bust the chrysalis of the primitive state of man. In America he is yet in a state of racial childhood. As he realizes this, the faster he will grow, the quicker he will learn, the sooner he will reach his racial manhood. In less than half a century he has done wonders. Before the century we have just begun is half over, he will have done greater still. He has yet and upon an extensive scale to learn habits of method and order; habits of tenacity and acquisition; habits of sustained industry and sobriety without which no race—white, red, brown or black—or any individual man—can get on and prosper.

"He is a bad white man who will not help his neighbor black man when that neighbor black man shows the spirit to help himself. He is a bad black man who cherishes hatred in his heart against the white man.
He is a foolish black man who thinks because the mirage of social equality which would prove a curse rather than a blessing, is denied him, that the white man hates him. Social questions the world over create their own laws and settle themselves. They cannot be forced. It is idle anywhere for anybody to contest, or quarrel with them. No man should want to go where he is not wanted; true, self-respecting men dismiss the very thought of it, going their own way, hoing their own row, and giving praise to God that their happiness is within themselves and beyond the reach of any man, be he white or black, king or vassal!"

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Paducah Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Paducah, who so testified years ago, now say their cures were permanent.
This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Paducah sufferers.

J. A. Houses, 809 Tennessee avenue, Paducah, Ky., says: "When I gave a statement for publication in the year 1900 telling of the great benefit I had received through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills which I had procured at DuBois Son & Co.'s drug store, it was absolutely true as I had been a sufferer from backache and kidney trouble all my life, and they greatly relieved me. Now after a lapse of almost seven years I am glad to confirm that statement and to again recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all kidney sufferers as a quick and reliable remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, ored and have the appearance of custom made garments.

IDENTIFIED

CICERO ANDERSON, ED COX AND DOCK EDDINGS HELD OVER.

John Ayres Appears Against Trio in Police Court This Morning.

On positive identification by John Ayres, the Maxon Mills farmer, that Cicero Anderson, Ed Cox and Dock Eddings cut him Sunday, two weeks ago, on Kentucky avenue near First street, the defendants were held over to the grand jury this morning by Police Judge D. A. Cross.

George Brown, colored, was held to the grand jury for stealing 50 cents and some beer from J. D. Overstreet. He was taken before County Judge R. T. Lightfoot and remanded to jail pending the acquisition of room in the reformatory.

Other cases: P. Gibson, breach of ordinance, continued; L. E. Jennings, $15 and costs for drunk and disorderly.

The Dawn of Reason.

In the days of unreason, when thinking by the many was at a discount, and man accepted and followed the beaten trails of custom, superstition and prejudice, disease was thought to be the results of the activities of evil spirits. In order to cure, the spirit must be driven out, and spells and incantations were resorted to. Later man considered disease a visitation of the just, wise, merciful Almighty Father--Who in His infinite wisdom, they thought, saw fit to inflict pain, misery and de-formity on His children.

As man began to make use of his thinking powers he began to realize that disease is not a thing but a condition; a state, a discord in nature, and that "within himself he must seek succor," that the laws of nature or the laws of God, and that both are perfect--improvement, as well as disregard of them impossible.

Health is normal and natural. Osteopathy so recognizes it and endeavors, when the symptoms become manifest in the human body, to discover and right the cause. The osteopath searches for and locates the structural derangement. No matter what is the nature of disease, it could not exist if there was normality of structural make-up.

Osteopathy is doing much for people in Paducah you know well and I should like to refer you to some of them, at any time, if you are interested, or to have you consult me with reference to your particular ailment.
Call me at 1497, or come to my office, 516 Broadway, upstairs, at any time from 9 a. m. to noon, or 1:30 to 5 p. m. Dr. G. B. Froage, Osteopath.

derly, and continued as to using profanity; Lillie Campbell, entering a saloon, dismissed; Minnie Toles, colored, and George Griffin, white, immorality, continued; Jim Jewell, breach of ordinance, dismissed; Ste-la Lee, colored, disorderly conduct, continued; Jim Doolin, drunk and disorderly, continued.

Work in Cairo.
George Katterjohn, of Paducah, secured the brick contract for a $20-000 building to be erected in Cairo by Isadore Klein and associates, who bought the Paducah Saddlery company plant and moved it to Cairo.
Work will start at once.

ally throngs the office on the last few days. Ten per cent. is added to all uneventful today though a slight flurry was caused when the attendants saw a white flash at the Red Cross hospital tent, which they thought was a nurse making bandages, but which turned out to be a girl falling out of a hammock. William Bourquin at 7 o'clock were enjoyed as a twilight service.

WILLSON, FARLEY AND BREATHITT

All McCracken County Favorites are Successful

Western Kentucky Will Be Strongly Represented on the Republican Ticket.

TAFT MAY GET INDORSEMENT.

Louisville, June 17.—Augustus E. Willson, of Louisville, will be nominated on the first ballot by the Republicans of Kentucky when they meet in state convention in Louisville next Wednesday. Mr. Willson has enough instructed votes to give him the nomination, even should other names be presented to the convention, and even should a fight be made on him. It is practically certain that no other name will be presented to the convention and that Mr. Willson will be named by acclamation.

In the county mass conventions held Saturday in every county in the state, Mr. Willson received several hundred more votes than the number required to give him the nomination, and many of the counties which sent their delegates uninstructed sent men who favor Mr. Willson for governor. Practically no opposition to his candidacy developed and it was largely a case of a county indorsing a favorite son, when the delegation was instructed for a candidate other than Mr. Willson. In complete returns from ninety-six of the 119 counties, Willson has 1,399 instructed votes.

Three candidates other than Willson received instructed votes. Daviess county sent a delegation instructed for E. T. Franks, collector of internal revenue at Owensboro, and Franks also got Metcalfe. W. H. Holt was the leading candidate after Willson, and received the instructed vote in three counties. His home county, Montgomery, after a fight in the county convention, sent a Holt delegation. The Willson men made a fight, but they were beaten, largely because it was Holt's home. Judge Holt received the instructed vote in Crittenden, Montgomery and Morgan counties, giving him a total of forty-one votes.

John W. Lewis was mentioned in two counties and received the instructed delegation in Green county, which has twelve votes. In Bullitt county friends of Mr. Lewis tried to have the delegation instructed for him, but the convention would not instruct for anyone, although the friends of Lewis were named as delegates. Washington county instructed for him.

Taft's Candidacy Popular.

The candidacy of William H. Taft for president received much attention, and many of the conventions openly declared in favor of indorsing him in the state convention. Other counties sent delegates who are known to favor Taft, and also to favor his indorsement by the convention next Wednesday. No other candidate for the presidency was mentioned in any of the conventions, and the Taft men seemed to have things their own way.

Judging from the action of so many of the conventions Saturday, it is probable that an effort will be made to have Taft indorsed in the state convention.

The Minor Contests.

With the governor's race out of the way and definitely settled, attention and interest now centers in the races for the minor offices, and it seems that there will be several close contests, with four or five candidates in several of the races. Many of the conventions Saturday instructed for special men in the minor races, but none of them selected a whole ticket, merely picking out one or more candidates and instructing in those.

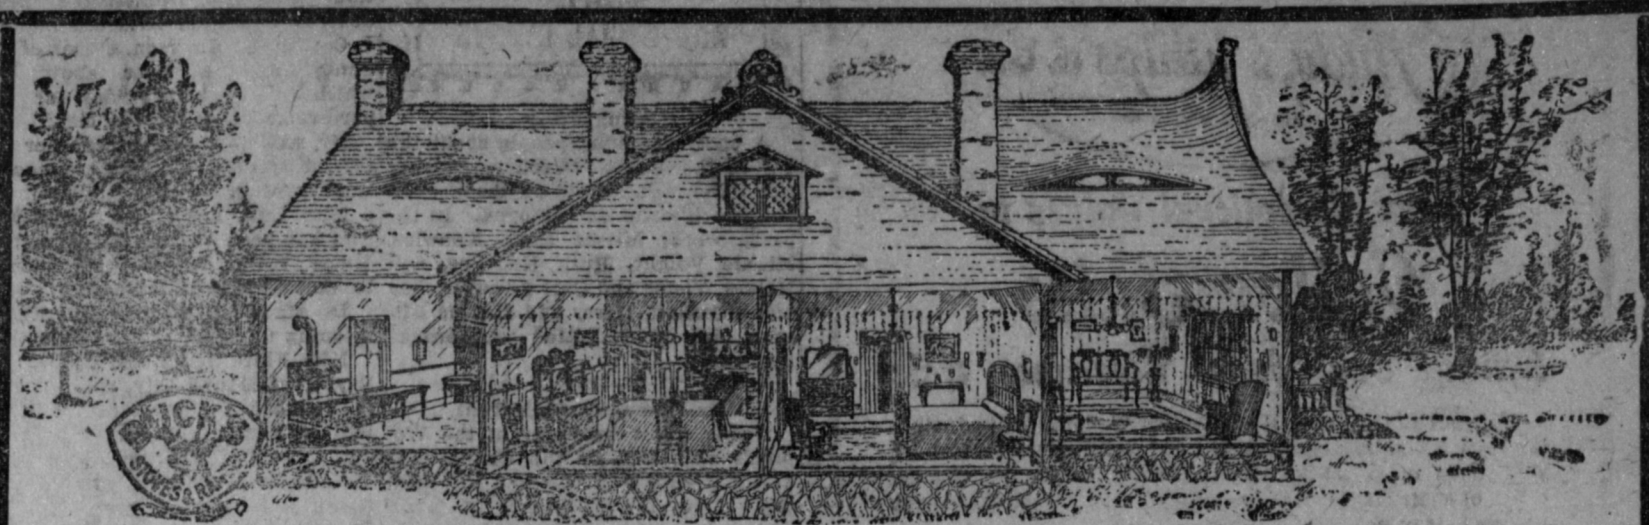

For lieutenant governor, W. H. Cox, of Maysville, seems the probable nominee, almost without opposition. He was given the instructions in his home county and also in several others, while the only man mentioned against him was John S. Adair, who received the vote of Hancock county. Judge B. L. D. Guffy received the instructions from Butler, his home county. The counties instructing for Cox were: Cumberland, Bath, Rowan, Mason, Robertson, Nicholas, Greentop, Grayson and Carter.

For secretary of state Dr. Ben L. Bruner, at present a deputy in the United States marshal's office at Louisville, leads over his two opponents by a large majority. The other two have only one county each and practically cut no figure in the race, unless a dark horse should develop at the last when the slate is finally made up. Dr. Bruner received the instructed votes in the following counties: Cumberland, Breckinridge, Hart, Hardin, Bullitt, Meade, Whitley and Grayson. J. L. McCoy received the vote of Lee county and H. H. Howes received the nineteen votes of Johnson county.

Farley for Treasurer.

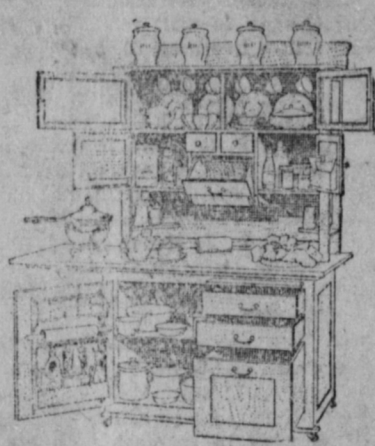

Ed Farley has a big lead in the race for state treasurer, getting the support of the western Kentucky counties. The only man mentioned against him was H. S. Howes, who had the vote of Lee county.

The race for attorney general received attention from many of the county conventions, as two men practically have announced for the place. Five candidates received instructions.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alternative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels, and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach, or catarrhal dyspepsia, bowels, (as in mucous colitis, bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs). Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in affecting cures.

"The Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to the female sex. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak women, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the breakdown, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formula of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

CHAPTER VI.

PHILIP knew that a fresh ordeal was at hand. How could he preserve his secret, how hope to prevail against the majesty of the British law as personified by the serene authority of the man whose penetrating glance now rested on him?
His was a dour and stubborn nature, though hardly molded as yet in rigid lines. He threw back his head and tightened his lips. He would cling to his anonymity to the bitter end, no matter what the cost. But he would not lie. Never again would he con-descend to adopt a subterfuge.

"Philip Morland," began the magistrate.

"My name is not Philip Morland," interrupted the boy.

"Then what is your name?"

"I will not tell you, sir. I mean no disrespect, but the fact that I am treated as a criminal merely because I wish to dispose of my property warns me of what I may expect if I state publicly who I am and where I live."

For the first time the magistrate heard the correct and well modulated flow of Philip's speech. If anything, it made more dense the mist through which he was trying to grope his way.
"That do you mean?" he asked.

"I mean that if I state who I am I will be robbed and swindled by all with whom I come in contact. I have stayed, I have been beaten for trying to earn a living. I was struck last night for saving a girl's life. I was arrested and dragged through the streets handcuffed this morning because I went openly to a dealer to sell a portion—to sell some of my diamonds. I will take no more risks. You may imprison me, but you cannot force me to speak. If you are a fair man you will give me back my diamonds and let me go free."

This outburst fairly electrified the court. Philip could not have adopted a more dominating tone were he the governor of the Bank of England charged with passing a counterfeit half crown. The magistrate was as surprised as any.

"I do not wish to argue with you," he said quietly, "nor do I expect you to commit yourself in any way, but you must surely see that for a poverty-stricken boy to be found in possession of gems of great marketable value is a circumstance that demands inquiry, however honest and—er—well bred you may be."

"The only witness against me has said that the diamonds could not have been stolen!" cried Philip, now thoroughly aroused and ready for any var-rant of wits.

"Quite true. The inference is that you have discovered a meteoric deposit of diamonds."

"I have. Some—not all—are before you."

A tremor shook the court. Isaacstein swallowed something, and his head sank more deeply below his shoulders.

"Then I take it that you will not inform me of the locality of this deposit?"

"Yes."

"And you think that by disclosing your name and address you will reveal that locality?"

Philip grew red.

"Is it fair," he said, with a curious leanness in his tone, "that a man of your age should use his position and knowledge to try to trip a boy who is brought before you on a false charge?"

It was the magistrate's turn to look slightly confused. There was some asperity in his reply.

"I am not endeavoring to trip you, but rather to help you to free yourself from a difficult position. However, do I understand that you refuse to answer my questions?"

"I do!" The young voice rang through the building with amazing fervor.

Mr. Abington bent over the big book in front of him and scribbled something.

"Remanded for a week," he muttered.

"Downstairs," growled the court jailer, and Philip disappeared from sight. The magistrate was left gazing at the packet of diamonds, and he called Isaacstein, the clerk of the court and two police inspectors into his private office for a consultation.

Meanwhile London was pestered with Philip's adventures that Saturday evening. Contents bills howled in their blackest and biggest type, news vendors bawled themselves hoarse over this latest sensation, journalistic ferrets combined theory and imagination in the effort to spin out more "copy."

Scotland Yard set its keenest detectives at work to reveal the secret of Philip's identity, while Isaacstein, acting on the magistrate's instructions, wrote to every possible source of information in the effort to obtain some clue as to recent meteoric showers.

No one thought of connecting the great storm with the "diamond mystery." Meteors usually fall from a clear sky and are in no way affected by atmospheric disturbances, their normal habitat being far beyond the influence of the earth's envelope of air.

And so the "hunt for the meteor" commenced and was kept up with zest for many days. "Have you found it?" became the stock question of the humorist and might be addressed with impunity to any stranger, particularly if the stranger were a nice looking girl.
No one answered "What?" because of the weird replies that were forthcoming.

The police failed utterly in their efforts to discover Philip's identity or residence. Johnson's Mews, Mile End road, might as well be in Timbuctu for all the relation it bore to Ludgate Hill or Hatton Garden. An East End policeman might have recognized Philip had he seen him, but the official description of his clothing and personal appearance applied to thousands of hobbledehays in every district in London.

Two persons among the 6,000,000 of the metropolis alone possessed the knowledge that would have led the in-quirers along the right track. The doctor who attended Mrs. Anson in her last illness, had he read the newspaper comment on the boy's speech and mannerisms, might have seen the coincidence supplied by the Christian name and thus been led to make some further investigation. But his hands were full of trouble of his own account. A dispenser mixed a prescription wrongly and dosed a patient with half an ounce of arsenic instead of half an ounce of cream of tartar. The suges-tion inquest gave the doctor enough to do, and the first paper he had leisure to peruse contained a bare reference to the "diamond mystery" as revealing no further developments. He passed the paragraph unread.

The remaining uncertain element centered in old O'Brien, the pensioner.
Now it chanced that the treasury had discovered that by a clerical mistake in a warrant the old man had been drawing twopenny a day in excess of his rightful pension for thirty-three years. Some humorist in Whitehall thereupon sent him a demand for £108 and 15 shillings, and the member of the Whitechapel division was compelled to adopt stern tactics in the house before the matter was adjusted, and O'Brien was allowed to receive the reduced quarterly stipend then due. During that awful crisis the poor old fellow hardly ate or slept. Even when it had ended the notion remained firmly fixed in his mind that the "murderer" government had robbed him of a hundred golden sovereigns an' more.

As for newspapers, the only item he read during many days was the question addressed by his "number" to the chancellor of the exchequer and the brief reply thereto, both of which were fixed beforehand by mutual arrangement.

In one instance the name given and afterward repudiated by the boy did attract some attention. On the Monday following the remand a lady sat at breakfast in a select West End hotel and languidly perused the record of the case until her eye caught the words "Philip Morland." Then her air of delicate hauteur vanished, and she left her breakfast untouched until, with hawklike curving of neck and nervous clenching of hands, she had read every line of the police court record. She was a tall, thin, aristocratic looking woman, with eyes set too closely together, a curved nose like the beak of a bird of prey and hands covered with a leathery skin suggesting talons. Her attire and pose were elegant, but she did not seem to be a pleasant sort of person. Her lips parted in a vinegary smile as she read.
She evidently did not believe one word of the newspaper report in so far as the diamonds were concerned.

"A vulgar swindle!" she murmured to herself. "How is it possible for a police magistrate to be taken in in such a manner? I suppose Isaacstein knows more about it than appears on the surface. But how came the boy to give that name? It is sufficiently uncommon to be remarkable. How stupid it was of Julie to mislay my dressing case! It would be really interesting to know what has become of those people, and now I may have to leave town before I can find out."

How much further her disjointed comments might have gone it is impossible to say, but at that moment a French maid entered the room and gazed inquiringly around the various small tables with which it was filled. At last she found the lady who was breakfasting alone, and sped swiftly toward her.

"I am so glad, milady," she said, speaking in French. "The bag has found itself at the police station. The cabman brought it there, and, if you please, milady, as the value was given as £8, he claimed a reward of £1."

"Which you will pay yourself. You lost the bag," was the curt reply.

"Where is it?"

The maid's voice was somewhat tearful as she answered:

"In milady's room. I paid the sovereign."

Her ladyship rose and glided gracefully toward the door, followed by the maid, who whispered to a French waiter—bowing most deferentially to the guest as he held the door open—that her mistress was a cat. He confided his own opinion that her ladyship was a holp pig, and the two passed along a corridor.

Remarkable Rescue.

That the truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper.
He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came.
The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed for coughs and

All Sound But the Hull.

The energy of some men seems unconquerable. As the body weakens it burns all the brighter, fretted only by its narrow confines and inadequate service. Of such a nature was John Quincy Adams. Mr. Seward in his "Autobiography" quotes a comment made on him by an old captain which is most apt in its technical expression.

"Mr. Adams is a very great man, but he is getting old," remarked some one who had just listened to an oration by the ex-president.

The response of a steamboat captain with whom Mr. Adams had traveled expressed the popular feeling.

"Yes, perhaps, but oh, if you could only take the engine out of the old Adams and put it into a new hull!"

IRISH QUESTION

CONTINUES TO TROUBLE EN-GLAND AND LONG WILL.Preparation Among Nationalists To Make New Phase of Agrarian Question on Island.

London, June 15.—Premier Campbell-Bannerman ingeniously informed the house of commons the other day that the situation in Ireland was, on the whole, "quite satisfactory." The expression used by the premier has a peculiar meaning. Unrepressed disorder exists openly undeniably in no less than nine counties—Sligo, Leitrim, Roscommon, Mayo, Galway, Clare, Kerry, Kings, West Cork. The agitation is spreading also to Queens and Longford.

Justice Curran of the high court at the opening of the quarter sessions in Kings county this week, declared from the bench "although Kings county is officially reported as peaceable, it is my emphatic declaration the country never was in a worse state of disorder and disruption than at present."

A newspaper correspondent on the ground writes:

"Preparations are being made throughout the south and west of Ireland to make the new phase of the agrarian agitation universal. Heart has been put into the movement by the failure of the crown to send any of the numerous prisoners charged with driving cattle from the ranges to trial. The graziers realize their occupation is being made impossible and many within the last few weeks have surrendered their grass lands in obedience to the demands of the people. The government will find it difficult to tackle the new movement, as numerous public men in sympathy with the nationalist movement were created magistrates by the late administration, when devolution was in the air and there was a promise of peace and prosperity." Both devolution and Birrell's bill have been blown to atoms, and now the new magistrates have it in their power to send agitators forward for trial or not, as they wish.

Magistrates Friendly to Agitators.

"Up to the present all the men arrested for cattle driving have been liberated, notwithstanding the positive swearing of the police. In the hopeful days of devolution the constabulary force was considerably weakened by the government who believed they had done with the agitation. The force is now found to be too small, and men have to uphold the law in counties where the anti-graziers are active.

"Towns in the disturbed districts are like armed camps, and strong bodies of police are stationed on the ranches where cattle are grazing.
When the agitation spreads, as it will do immediately, it is believed the military will have to be called to assist the constabulary. The people demand that the vast grazing ranches shall be divided among them, and a drive through the affected parts shows they have some reason for their stand. It is quite common to find the cabins of the peasants clustered in congested districts, their so-called farms being reclaimed bog or unproductive clay, while the cattle ranches are on wide spreading grass lands of the finest soil.

Officials at Dublin Alarmed.

"Officials at Dublin castle regard the situation as the most serious in the last fifteen years, and the United Irish leaguers are confident their movement will result in the abolition of the present grazing system within the present year. Not many weeks ago the league was regarded as moribund, but since the present agitation started new members have flocked in and a spirit of fierce determination again has become manifest."

It means that the producer is getting more than one-fifth of what HE ALONE produces.

ARMY WORMS AND BAD WEATHER

Frankfort, Ky., June 17.—In his monthly crop report Superintendent Vreeland says:

The corn acreage compared with a five year average is a little short, being 96 per cent. Condition is 77 per cent, which is fairly good considering the weather and worms.

The acreage of wheat is 90 per cent of a five year average. Condition is 82, a falling off of seven points since our May report. The oat crop is a little short in acreage and has fallen off in condition from 83 in May to 79 at this time. Rye is some better in acreage and conditions. Hemp is 83 per cent of a five year average and 90 in condition.

There is a general complaint of a scarcity of tobacco plants and lateness for being ready for transplanting. It looks now that it will be impossible to plant a full crop and much of that will be late. Only a small percent of the crop was planted June 1. This is applicable to both burley and dark.

The scarcity and high price of stock peas has cut the acreage of that crop.

Apples only promise about a third of a crop and peaches nearly a failure. The berry crop promises a fair yield.

Gardens are backward and the cold weather gave tender vegetation quite a set back.

First Division.

Hickman County—The army worm has damaged wheat to some extent in this section. The same pests have almost entirely destroyed meadows and young clover and also injured pastures. Cool weather and continued rains have caused early planted corn to be a very poor stand. Most of it has been planted over.

Henderson County—The army worm is destroying meadows, pastures and clover, besides damaging wheat, corn and tobacco.

Daviess County—Army worms have destroyed 50 per cent of the meadows. Cut worms unusually destructive. 3.67 rain has fallen in past week. Tobacco plants very scarce. It will require three drawings to set 75 per cent of contemplated acreage.

Crittenden County.—The month of May will be long remembered for its unseasonable weather. The farmers are behind worse with their crops than I ever knew them. The majority of the corn crop is just being planted and a great deal of ground is to break yet for corn. Wheat is heading low and some fields look sorry, while others look fairly well; cold weather injured wheat. I doubt whether there will be a one-fourth of a tobacco crop planted on account of scarcity of plants. Meadows look promising but are weedy some. There will not be over a half crop of stock peas planted; seed is high and scarce. The apple crop is a failure but there will be some peaches, berries of all kinds look promising. Garden truck is late and small. There is no tobacco set yet.

Christian County—The worst spring for farm work and growth of plants I ever saw and I go back 70 years. Wheat goes down several points. First the cold wet weather, then three weeks ago the army worms made their appearance. The wheat was late and low and suffered great damage in many places (spots) entirely destroyed it, and also partly destroyed the young clover. The greater damage—many spots—and in some places whole corn fields destroyed by the army worms, and cut worms were never worse or more destructive. Many fields had to be planted over. Just now the farm prospects are not the brightest. Livestock doing well. A few war mdays now are helping the situation. Wheat has brightened up a little but badly affected with rust.

McLean County—Corn planting progressing very slowly. Cold wet weather. Tobacco plants scarce and small, most of the crop will not be set before the 15th of June. Wheat heading out low and very short. Some complaint of cut worms. Poorest prospects for several years in almost all crops.

Funerals of Capt. William Hemphill and Walter McCawley Are Held Today.

W. Y. Griffith, 51 years old, for years a dairyman and popularly known from one end of the city to the other, died Sunday morning at 12:40 o'clock at his home on North Thirteenth street of a complication of diseases after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Griffith first became ill two months ago with kidney trouble. Complications resulted, and his condition grew slowly worse until death relieved his sufferings. He was born in Marshall county and 20 years ago removed to Paducah, engaging first in the general merchandise business, making a success. Buying land just outside the city limits in Rowlandtown, he established a dairy and until a short time ago engaged in this business. Failing health caused him to sell out less than a year ago, and since then he had not been engaged in any active business. He was a member of the Odd Fellows' lodge and of the Trimble Street Methodist church. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Davis and Miss Isabelle Griffith and a son, Mr. Urey Griffith. Dr. B. B. Griffith, the well known doctor, is the only surviving brother. The funeral was held this morning at the residence. The services were conducted by the Rev. G. W. Banks. The burial was in Oak
